Re: Notice of Ex Parte Presentation, CG Docket No. 02-278

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On November 30, 2017, Margot Saunders from the National Consumer Law Center, George Slover and Maureen Mahoney (on the phone) of Consumers Union, Christine Hines of the National Association of Consumer Advocates, and Remington Gregg of Public Citizen met with the following FCC staff: Mark Stone, Kristi Thornton, Christina Clearwater and Lauren Wilson. Jeremy Glapion, a private attorney representing the consumer plaintiff in the litigation against Outcome Health was also in attendance.

We discussed three subjects:

1. The pending petition by the FHFA requesting clarification of the TCPA's coverage of communications made by the servicers governed by the Federal Housing Finance Agency (FHFA) after the recent hurricanes.¹ The points we addressed are all included in the comments filed today consumer groups on this petition.
2. The pending petition by the Credit Union National Association. Our discussion covered the same material as was included in our filed comments on this petition.²

² Comments filed by the National Consumer Law Center on behalf of its low-income clients and 21 national consumer groups, November 6, 2017, available at <https://ecfsapi.fcc.gov/file/110795032275/Comments%20Opposing%20CUNA%20Petition.pdf>.

3. The pending petition by Outcome Health requesting relief from TCPA liability. Our discussion covered the same material as included in our filed comments on that petition.³ Mr. Glapion provided a separate presentation, about which he will file his own ex parte notice.

If there are any questions, please contact Margot Saunders at the National Consumer Law Center (NCLC), msaunders@nclc.org (202 452 6252, extension 104).

This disclosure is made pursuant to 47 C.F.R. §1.1206.

Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

Margot Saunders
